

PARRAMATTA SQUARE

Parramatta Square is quickly taking shape as we progress towards delivering a world-class precinct in the heart of Parramatta.

From Saturday 30 November 2019 Darcy Street will reopen to pedestrians and vehicles.

Access changes

As part of the reopening of Darcy Street, the following key changes will come in to effect:

- Darcy Street will reopen to pedestrians and vehicles. Darcy Street will be one way from East (Smith Street) to West (Church Street).
- Pedestrians can exit Parramatta Station via the Darcy Street exit to access the new 4 Parramatta Square tower.
- The exit from Parramatta Station to the Argyle Street Bus Interchange will reopen in the morning peak.
- Direct pedestrian access via an underground retail link from Parramatta Station to Parramatta Square and the public space will open shortly after.
- Pedestrians travelling to Macquarie Street from the public space will be able to access the walkway between 3 Parramatta Square and Western Sydney University once the retail link is open.
- Direct access to and from Platform 1 from Station Street will be closed permanently from December 2019.
