1. Scope

- 1.1 This Policy applies to City of Parramatta Council (Council) Library services (Library).
- 1.2 This Policy further applies to all Employees, trainees, and volunteers working in Council's Library services.

2. Purpose

- 2.1 The Library operates under the Library Act 1939 (NSW) as amended from time to time. The Library Regulation 2018 (NSW) enables councils to regulate the use of public libraries, in accordance with the service requirements for public libraries as set out in section 10 of the Library Act 1939 (NSW).

The purpose of this Policy is to guide Council's provision of library services and to establish a framework for appropriate Customer use of the library. This Policy sets out the administration and customer service standards required for providing Council's Library services.

3. Policy

- 3.1 Council is committed to providing Library services which are consistent with the following values:
 - (a) promote the free flow of information and ideas through open access to recorded knowledge, information, and creative works;

- (b) deliver authentic information and evidence-based practice supported by quality research;
- (c) connect people to ideas, knowledge creation, and learning;
- (d) foster reading, information, and digital literacies;
- (e) manage, organise, and preserve the human record;
- (f) demonstrate excellence, accountability, integrity, and responsibility in service to the community;
- (g) maintain currency of professional knowledge and practice; and
- (h) undertake partnerships and collaborations to advance these values.

Council's library service values are informed by the Australian Library and Information Association's Core Values Statement, and the values set out in statements and guidelines issued by industry bodies such as the Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA) and the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA).

3.1.1 Council will also consider in the provision of Library services the aspirations of the community as set-out in Council's Community Strategic Plan.

3.2 Council is committed to providing Library services to Customers which are fair, easy to use and access, and which meet Customer needs. Council will meet the service needs of Library Customers by:

- (a) respectfully assisting Customers in their use of the Library;
- (b) providing physical and digital collections that are well-maintained and are easily accessible;
- (c) offering information services, including education programs, to support information and digital literacy;
- (d) ensuring Employees, trainees, and volunteers are appropriately trained to provide high-quality services, including by respecting Customer confidentiality;
- (e) providing convenient opening hours through a network of libraries;
- (f) promoting an inclusive and socially cohesive community through Library services that are responsive to the needs of people from people from a range of backgrounds, experiences, and/or identities;
- (g) providing Library services, programs, and facilities for Customers of all ages;
- (h) regularly reviewing Library services to ensure that they remain relevant; and
- (i) actively engaging with Customers to support continuous improvement of Library services and programs.
