1. Introduction

The City of Parramatta (Council) collects and holds Personal Information and Health Information for the purpose of its functions, operations and activities. The Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 requires all public sector agencies to prepare and implement a Privacy Management Plan.

1.1 What this Plan covers

Section 33(2) of the PPIPA sets out the requirements of this Plan. This Plan must include:

- any other matters Council considers relevant in relation to privacy and the protection of Personal Information it holds.

Individuals cannot seek an internal review for a breach of someone else's privacy, unless they are an authorised representative of the other person.

An internal review is an internal investigation that Council conducts into a complaint. Council will assess whether it has complied with its privacy obligations, and then tell the applicant of its findings and if it will take any further action.
