

MAP KEY

Council Bushland Reserve

Hunts Creek Multiuse Path

Balaka Falls Circuit

Walking track

Track network access path

Stepping stone crossing – low water levels only

Bridged creek crossing

Trailhead

Playground

This map illustrates the Balaka Falls Circuit, a multi-use trail system located in the Blue Mountains. The circuit is shown as a red line, with a dashed red line indicating the multi-use path. The trail is situated within the Council Bushland Reserve, which is shaded in light green. The map includes a detailed map key in the top left corner, defining symbols for the circuit, walking tracks, access paths, crossings, trailheads, and playgrounds. The trail starts at a trailhead near the intersection of North Rocks Road and Statham Avenue, passes through the Balaka Falls Circuit, and ends near the intersection of North Rocks Road and Camden Avenue. The map also shows the surrounding residential area, including streets such as North Rocks Road, Camden Avenue, and Balaka Drive. Other features include the Balaka Falls Circuit, the Balaka Falls Circuit, and the Balaka Falls Circuit. The map is oriented with North at the top, as indicated by the north arrow in the bottom left corner. A scale bar in the bottom left corner shows distances of 0, 100, and 200 metres. The map is titled 'Balaka Falls Circuit' and 'Hunts Creek Multiuse Path'.

