

Wentworth Point Community Centre and Library (Community Hub) - CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Warami – “it’s good to see you”. Welcome to City of Parramatta.

The following conditions of entry apply to all persons attending Wentworth Point Community Centre and Library (WPCCL) including general public, visitors, contractors and staff.

These Conditions of Entry should be read in conjunction with the Conditions under:

- The use for any service provided from within WPCCL (available on our website);
- any room booking as detailed through booking transactions and Terms and Condition;
- City of Parramatta’s Libraries Entry Condition and Guidelines;
- Programs, events and activities at WPCCL that may have specific additional conditions of entry, depending on the nature of the actual program, event or activity. These requirements will be clearly detailed through ticketing transactions.

1.0 General Conditions of Entry

By entering this premise (Hub), you agree to comply and be bound by the following Terms and Conditions of Public Entry:

- 1.1. A person must comply with any reasonable request- made by staff, including signage, in relation to entry, continued presence, or use of the Premises and its contents.
- 1.2. A person must not engage in behaviour that is likely to interfere with the safety, comfort or convenience of other people within the Premise or that is likely to damage or result in the unauthorised use of the Hubs facilities or materials.
- 1.3. Persons who cause a disturbance or refuse to comply with any requests made by Council staff or their agents will be denied entry or asked to leave the premises. Any person who attempts to enter the premises after being asked to leave will be immediately reported to the NSW Police;
- 1.4. All persons enter the premises at their own risk. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you release and indemnify City of Parramatta, its officers and affiliates from and against any injury, death, loss, costs, expenses, demands or liability, whether directly or indirectly, arising out of or in connection with your entry and use of this facility.
