09 Winterlight Returns

Lord Mayor's message

Welcome to the latest edition of Parramatta Pulse. As the final autumn leaves of the season fall to the ground, our City is preparing for its transformation into a winter wonderland.

Winterlight

Each year the City of Parramatta hosts a spectacular winter festival, which includes Sydney's biggest open-air ice rink. With an ice slide and illuminated Ferris wheel, Winterlight also promises entertainment, a wide variety of food, workshops, and amusement rides. I encourage everyone to bring their family and friends to Prince Alfred Square between Friday 5 July and Sunday 21 July to experience winter joy in the heart of our City.

Powerhouse powers ahead

The past few months have been busy for Council and the wider community. And it was exciting news for all of us when the NSW Government announced in May that six design teams have been shortlisted to create the new Powerhouse Precinct in Parramatta.

The calibre of Australian and international architecture firms involved is extraordinary and the Precinct will undoubtedly be a world-class destination that will attract visitors from across the country and the world.

This will be a transformational project for arts and culture in Western Sydney and will help to position Parramatta as a truly global city. It is just one of a number of City-changing projects underway, including the Parramatta Light Rail, Parramatta Square, and Riverside Theatres redevelopment.

Destination Management Plan

Autumn also provided an opportunity for people to have a say on the City's Draft Destination Management Plan 2019-2024 (DMP).

The Draft DMP lays the foundation for the next stage of the City's growth, proposing a new framework to expand the economic, social and cultural life of Parramatta by attracting more visitors to our City.

'Digger' statue

Finally, I invite all residents who haven't already visited to head to Prince Alfred Square to see the new bronze 'Digger' statue unveiled ahead of Anzac Day. The life-size statue, which depicts a World War I soldier, was commissioned by Council and Parramatta RSL Sub Branch to commemorate the Centenary of Armistice.

Our City has a proud and diverse history from which all our residents and visitors can learn and, together, grow towards a bright and promising future.

Lord Mayor
Councillor Andrew Wilson

Parramatta Light Rail tree planting

In March, City of Parramatta Council in partnership with Transport for NSW (TfNSW) commenced the first phase of the four-year Parramatta Light Rail Tree Planting and Neighbourhood Improvement program.

More than 2,500 trees are expected to be planted in streets, parks and reserves throughout the city to help offset any trees removed during light rail construction. Up to eight trees will be planted for each tree removed as a result of the construction. More than 100 trees have been planted in Barney, By, Dunlop and Harold streets in North Parramatta, as well as Jessie Street, Caroline Street and Queens Road in Westmead.

Tree species, selected by an arborist to suit local conditions, include flowering gum, magnolia, brush box and crepe myrtle.

Visit cityofparramatta.nsw.gov.au/plr-trees for more information.

To find out more about the Parramatta Light Rail, please contact the 24-hour Community Information Line on 1800 139 389, email parramattalightrail@transport.nsw.gov.au or visit parramattalightrail.nsw.gov.au

Bushwalking around Parramatta

Our City is a wonderful place to walk. We have a diversity of natural beauty from Blue Gum hill tops to rainforest gullies, freshwater river flats and saltwater estuaries.

It is a land of our ancestors, reflecting 200 million years of geological and evolutionary change and more than 60,000 years of Darug dreaming.

Council has recently updated its Bushwalks of Parramatta brochure, which includes information on 15 major walking tracks across Toongabbie, Winston Hills, Westmead, North Rocks, Carlingford, Northmead, Epping, Telopea, Homebush and other suburbs. There are quick and easy strolls, and longer tracks for more intrepid explorers.

The brochure is available at the Parramatta Heritage and Visitor Information Centre at 346A Church Street Parramatta and can be viewed online at cityofparramatta.nsw.gov.au/recreation-environment/bushland-and-biodiversity/bushwalks-of-parramatta

Community Events Grants

Applications for Community Events Grants are open, and close on Monday 5 August at 5pm.

The Community Events Grants aim to establish and encourage new events in the City of Parramatta which:

- are low cost or free to the public;
- are a new offering that complements the existing events calendar;
- encourage new visitors to the City.

Applicants are eligible to receive grant funding to cover up to 20 per cent of the total event budget up to the amount of $10,000 annually.

Events must align with the City of Parramatta's Vision and Priorities and must be delivered wholly or primarily within the Parramatta Local Government Area. The program supports not-for-profit organisations, community groups, professional groups and, in some cases, individuals.

Bankwest Stadium opens

Bankwest Stadium was officially opened in April and thousands of fans were given the chance to tour the venue at a Community Open Day.

Locals and sports enthusiasts had the opportunity to roam the general admission areas, try the different food and beverage offerings, sit in the new seats for the first time, and experience the stadium's state-of-the-art lighting, video and audio systems.

It was history in the making when the Eels kicked off with their first game back at home in Parramatta against the Wests Tigers to a sell-out crowd of 30,000. The atmosphere in the stadium was electric with fans keen to see their team play on home turf.

The City has been abuzz on game days with fans, families, residents and visitors experiencing all that Parramatta has to offer.

The stadium will host the Parramatta Eels, Western Sydney Wanderers, Wests Tigers, NSW Waratahs and various international sporting and entertainment fixtures.

Western Sydney Wanderers will play Leeds United on Saturday 20 July.

Connect with YOUR City

Parramatta is a vibrant place to work, live, explore and play. Now you can discover all that this great city has to offer with free walking tours for new residents and workers. Led by friendly, energetic and knowledgeable guides, find out what makes living or working in Parramatta such a unique and enriching experience.

Tours are also available in Mandarin and Korean. For dates and more information on tours of Parramatta visit cityofparramatta.nsw.gov.au/tours

Youth Week, 2019

A 24-metre-long mural titled 'Beyond Stereotypes' was a feature of this year's Youth Week celebrations.

The mural, depicting the faces of seven young Western Sydney women, comes alive with text and video with the help of the 'Beyond Stereotypes' smartphone app.

Other Youth Week events included Good Vibes Festival, a writing competition, and performances at Riverside Theatres.

It's playtime!

Nineteen Parramatta playgrounds upgraded

Right across our great City, children's playgrounds have been getting a makeover. From space-themed play equipment, big slides and wide, open spaces to sandpits, bike tracks, and multi-use sport courts, kids have new and fun parks to explore and enjoy. As part of Council's major projects program, 19 playgrounds across the City are being upgraded with $2.64 million from the NSW Government's Stronger Communities Fund. Most of these upgrades have been completed and are already open to the public. The final two playgrounds will be completed before the end of 2019, with the upgrade of the Carmen Drive playground due to start in August.

Blast off!

At Burnside Gollan Reserve in Oatlands, the space-themed play equipment brings kids' imagination to life as they play. With a rocket ship climbing gym and soft-fall rubber decorated with stars and planets, this playground is out of this world.

Play and ride

The scooter and bike track is proving popular at Jason Place Reserve in North Rocks. The track winds between a wooden climbing play gym, which includes slides, monkey bars, and a rope climbing wall.

Good sports

There's something for everyone at George Kendall Riverside Park in Ermington. It features upgraded tennis courts, barbecue and picnic facilities, and new multi-use courts. The sports pavilion was recently named in honour of former Council Alderman, the late Greg McKay.

Digging fun

At Pinetree Drive Reserve in Carlingford the sandpit digger is a local favourite with young children. The play space, which includes swings and a climbing play gym, is surrounded by open, green space for all to enjoy.

There are 146 playgrounds across the City of Parramatta.

How we celebrated autumn...

Parramasala

Despite inclement weather, the three-day Parramasala festival was a huge success, showcasing Parramatta's rich cultural diversity with music, dance, workshops and feasts.

Heritage Festival

A diverse program of tours and activities paid homage to the City's unique history and culture as part of the 2019 Australian Heritage Festival in April and May.

Following the theme 'Connecting People, Places and the Past', the Festival featured the Warami Mittigar Walks series and the Feisty Females coach tour.

Rydalmere Artists' Studios

New warehouse-style studios were opened at Rydalmere as part of an expanded Parramatta Artists' Studios (PAS). The six, purpose-built spaces give resident artists the space to work on major pieces. The new studios were funded through a grant from the NSW Government Stronger Communities Fund.

Anzac Day

Ahead of Anzac Day, Council and Parramatta RSL Sub Branch unveiled a new bronze 'Digger' statue at Prince Alfred Square. The life-size statue, which depicts a World War I soldier, commemorates the Centenary of Armistice. Dawn services were held in Parramatta CBD and Epping.

Bringing communities together

Local Indigenous community members and people from at least 18 migrant backgrounds came together in April to connect and learn in a new City of Parramatta program, Parramatta Dialogues.

Cultural exchanges were led by Darug community leaders and members of local Tamil and Indian communities. Participants were introduced to the diverse cultures of Parramatta and Western Sydney through weaving, Kolam art, saree-wearing, and learning about tools and artefacts, dance and drumming.

With the pilot program complete, Council's Community Capacity Building team is now exploring ways to build on its success.

Cultural exchanges were led by Darug community leaders and members of local Tamil and Indian communities.

Burraramatta NAIDOC

NAIDOC Week 7 – 14 July is a celebration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and the rich history of our nation. As part of the festivities, you are invited to come along to Burraramatta NAIDOC at Parramatta Park on Sunday 14 July, from 11am – 6pm. Enjoy a range of free activities including traditional and contemporary music and dance performances, market stalls and workshops among other offerings. The event is part of the City's unique Indigenous program called Warami, a Darug word meaning "good to see you". Warami runs until September. For more information visit discoverparramatta/warami

Science Festival

National Science Week 2019 runs from 6 – 18 August, with a wide variety of programs and activities available to the community and schools.

City of Parramatta is again partnering with Sydney Science Festival to celebrate all things science. The public program will focus on medicine, while the schools program will showcase Parramatta's heritage, both natural and cultural.

A highlight will be the Bush Medicine Workshop to be held at Lake Parramatta Reserve, featuring traditional medical knowledge.

From Sawbones to Specialists, a walking tour through Parramatta, will investigate how developments in scientific and medical knowledge have influenced the treatment of patients and their ailments from pre-settlement to today.

The Pandemic in Parramatta talk will bring to light the impact of the 1919 flu pandemic on our City. And a new interactive archaeological adventure will focus on archaeological sites being uncovered as Parramatta's future reaches to the sky.

How active are you?

Our community is an active one, but many residents would like to do more exercise. Council conducted a survey of more than 900 locals in December 2018 through the Our City, Your Say panel to better understand physical activity habits and needs.

Walking is the most popular activity (71%), followed by bush walking (36%), swimming (34%), running/jogging (30%) and aerobics/fitness (30%).

Main reasons to be physically active are to keep fit/maintain health (80%), to improve fitness levels (58%) and to lose or maintain weight (54%).

Main barrier to being more active is lack of time (51%), largely driven by work commitments and family obligations.

The $100,000 works have improved pedestrian access and safety, and created an inviting place for users. The improvements included widened pedestrian pavement upgrades, new trees, and new seating.

Carmen Drive, Carlingford

The final design has been completed and the project will cost more than $900,000, with construction commencing in August. The upgrade will include a new fenced playground, amenities block with baby change table, and a new car park, as well as an upgrade to the shops frontage.

Ventura Road shops access, Northmead

The concept has been finalised with community support. Works improving access from the adjoining reserve to the shops, streetscape and garden beds will commence in January 2020. The project will cost approximately $425,000.

The Chisholm Centre, Winston Hills

Access to the centre has been improved with the completion of new stairs from Bellotti Ave to The Chisholm Centre, with solid concrete stairs as well as handrails and tactile indicators for the visually impaired. The project cost $20,000.

John Wearn Reserve set for major upgrade

John Wearn Reserve in Carlingford is set to undergo a major upgrade as part of the North Rocks Park Precinct Masterplan.

Thanks to $3.2 million from the NSW Government's Stronger Communities Fund, the 2.4 hectare park will host a new and improved playground, dog park, carpark, amenities block, skate park, fitness station, barbecue facilities, multi-use sport court, picnic shelters, and a new stage with amphitheatre seating.

Improvements will also be made to North Rocks Park, including new lighting. The whole upgrade is expected to be completed by December 2019.

The City of Parramatta has also upgraded the North Rocks Child Care Centre playground.

The $400,000 upgrade includes new shade structures, embankment slide, softfall rubber, a nature play area with Australia-themed sculptures, a vegetable garden, herb pots, fruit trees, and new retaining walls and landscaping.

Parra-pets-matta: Desexing

The cost of desexing a pet can be expensive, but it is important to keep domestic animal populations at a sustainable level.

Council has teamed up with selected local vets to offer low-cost desexing during the months of June and July. Cats can be desexed for $30, dogs under 25kgs for $100, and dogs over 25kgs for $150.

Why desex your pets?

- Desexing helps to reduce pet overpopulation and reduces the number of animals euthanised due to a lack of suitable homes.
- Undesexed domestic cats left to roam add to the stray cat population, which can affect wildlife.
- Cats can become pregnant at just four months old; dogs can become pregnant at five months. Early desexing is important.
- Life-time registration fees are subsidised for desexed animals.

For more information go to cityofparramatta.nsw.gov.au/parrapets

TRUCK ART Competition is back

Calling all school students! The popular Truck Art Competition is back and Council is seeking great ideas and designs from young Parramatta residents for how to address waste issues. This year's challenge is to help inform the community about the correct way to place rubbish bins on collection night. When bins are presented incorrectly — for example, when they are placed too close to a tree, power pole or car, or they are facing the wrong way — it makes collection dangerous or impossible for the garbage truck drivers. With more than 76,000 bins to empty every week, correct bin positioning is important.

Students are asked to create an A4, landscape artwork that shows our community how to present their bins correctly.

The six best entries will each receive a family zoo pass. The overall winning artwork will be displayed on the side of a garbage truck and be made into bin stickers.

For more details or to enter the competition visit cityofparramatta.nsw.gov.au/waste or call 9806 8295.

A footpath for every street

Council is seeking to ensure that every street in the City has at least one accessible footpath. This is outlined in Council's Disability Inclusion Action Plan 2017-2021. One of the objectives of the Plan is to provide continuous accessible pathways throughout

Making social connections

Loneliness is a growing issue globally, but Council is doing its bit to address the problem in our community.

City of Parramatta resident Nora has dementia but still lives in her own home with some service support. Concerned that Nora could become lonely when she was no longer able to go out on her own, the City's Community Care team decided to help. Through the Social Lunch Program, a volunteer was found to go to Nora's home for lunch and a chat. With Nora's family's support, Helen and Nora have been lunching together now for 18 months — sometimes at home and sometimes out and about.

Council's Social Lunch Program helps people to stay at home longer and reduces loneliness.

"You don't know what joy this brings me. The relaxation of walking out the front door and having something to look forward to. It's a recharge; everyone needs a little recharge."
